Melbourne Museum

Melbourne Museum is a place of trusted knowledge. We display Victoria's intriguing state collections and bring you brilliant temporary exhibitions that explore the natural environment, our cultures and history. Develop a deeper understanding of the world we live in and leave inspired to act for a better future.

- Triceratops: Fate of the Dinosaurs takes visitors on an immersive voyage into the lost world of the Cretaceous. Come face to face with the world's most significant and complete Triceratops fossil, now home at Melbourne Museum
- the Pauline Gandel Children's Gallery is a world-leading play space that combines hands-on exploration and discovery, immersive environments and unique museum collection objects to cultivate intergenerational learning experiences
- Bunjilaka Aboriginal Cultural Centre, a gallery imbued with the living traditions and knowledge of Koorie people and other cultures from around Australia
- the Science and Life Gallery, where you'll find bugs, dinosaurs, fossils, animals and more
- the Melbourne Gallery, which tells the story of our beloved city and is the stable of famous racehorse Phar Lap
- Te Pasifika Gallery, a bright soaring space filled meaningful objects and stories from the Pacific Islands
- the Forest Gallery, the living heart of the museum and a self-contained biome of cool temperate rainforest plants with Gondwanan origins
- Museum Shop and Museum Market Cafe

TREETOPS & NORTH TERRACE

As a Family Day group, you'll have exclusive all-day access to Treetops. This floor-to-ceiling glass function space sits beside the canopies of the Forest Gallery and overlooks the lush greenery of Carlton Gardens. Gather for lunch, deliver a presentation, stow belongings, rest your feet and skip museum queues with private bathroom facilities.

For even more space to sprawl and play, you can reserve the North Terrace. This expansive outdoor courtyard stems directly off Treetops and can be customised with picnic tables and chairs, outdoor activities, stages and more.
